OHIO REPUBLICANS

Foraker-Bushnell Combination in Control.

THE STATE TICKET COMPLETEL

McKinley Delegation Will be Sen to the Republican National Convention.

MANESVILLE, Ohio, May 29,-The Republican state convention was as lamp today as it was lively yesterday. After being in session till midnight in nominating the head of the ticket there was nating the near of the treats seen and little life left in the delegates, and only minor places on the state ticket to be lively over.

Owing to the way in which the fa tional lines and been drawn by the Mc Kinley and Fornker men in nominating Bushnell last night for cover it was evident the slate headed by Bush-nell would go through, and that candidates not on the slate would go down like Nash, Hoyt, Poc. Kiefer, Harris, Barger and Nevin Ind previously gone down before the anti-administration mendid not surrounder without a field, however, and build the convention in continuous session from 9 n.m. to 12 p.m. With a single exception, in which increet was taken, the Bushnell shate went through compileto for the eight blaces on the start tekent, and seatured a majority of all the members and all this places of the state committee, and really made a clean sweep of the old regume. Yet the most material thing for the future is the condition of things which continues all substructures the same universal to the state of the state condition of things which continues all substructures are used Bierman's candidary under the Foster administration with Gardield's seantorinal annex in 1880. In 1884 Shorman had the Blaine element as well as Forsker and Foster to contend with. dates not on the slate would go down

In 1884 Sherman had the Blaine element as well as Forder and Poster to contend with.

In 1888 Sherman had the same old expurience and in 1886 there will be a Makinley delegation from Ohio to the Republican national convention, but it will be selected by Foraker and Bustinell, no matter wint may be the result of the nate elegation max November. The Foraker-Bushnell combination has control of all the party machinery, and the present party organization continuous until after the selection of delegates to the next Republican national convention. Foraker and Bustinell will have to the delegates at large thouselves, and they are not at all likely to grant two of the delegates at large thouselves, and they are not at all likely to grant become to Sherman and Poster going to the national convention as the other two, although it is believed they will consent to Sherman and Poster going to the national convention as the other two, although its believed they will consent to Sherman and Poster going to the national convention as the other two, although its form and Foraker may come out in 1804 as Garffeld did in 1830, which would mean that McKinley would come out in 1804 as Garffeld did in 1830, which would mean that McKinley would some out as Sherman did at that time and in succeeding years. It the Ropublicans carry the slate next November and Bushnell becomes governor and Foraker senator, them is no telling all that will happen in Ohio in 1895 and thereafter. Should Bushnell serve four years as governor ha would all be retired. There never was a convention in Chio that involved so many radical classing for the future as the one just lossed, with the Foraker-Bushnell und in the saddle for further conquests.

FOWLER LETTER.

Current Events in a Flourishing Country Village.

While he was at an entertainment last week some one took the liberty of using Supervisor Raste horse and luggy, and after getting all the use he wanted of them was kind enough to return them. The principal subject of conversation all week was a report of the opening of a now "ende" in close proximity to the reading room. As everybedy protested against its location, the projectors have wlasly opened business at another place.

At graduation exercises on Thursday seening, Superintendent Kirk presented diplomas to the following graduates Misses Blanche Brittan, Etta Hawkins and Matthe Barnett, and Earl Burton, Ralph Aten and Leelie Gilfon, Speculation is rife as to where the While he was at an entertainment last

Speculation is rife as to where the new railroad will want its dupot. Its seems to be an undisputable inter that Fowler will secure the road, If it does not I think the directors will surely have made a great mietake, as our shipments of wheat, railins and dried fruits are of unusual proportions for a town of its size. Then again as our lencality is thickly populated, the passenger traffic is no small from.

No doubt Fowler will present a lively appearance this fall with five packing houses in operation. All the houses now vacant will be occupied and our public hostelvies crowded for room will employ the control of the control of

The Play "Fogg's Ferry" Draws

Another Large House.

The popularity of Sam T. Shaw's
Company seems to be on the increase if Ompany seems to be on the increase if one is to judge from the large houses drawn the past three nights. A good andience was present last night to witness "Fogg's Ferry." In the character of Neb Fogg last night Sam Shaw appeared in his best. He took the part of the drunken ferry keeper, and while on the stage he kept his hearers in a constant roar of laughter. Jessie Shirley as Chip Fogg, the heroine, acquitted herself excellently in the variety of her acting. Nellie Maine, as Neb Fogg's wife, contributed largely to some very amusing scence. The play came up to expectation, and the theater goers of Freeno expect something butter than common from Sham Shaw's company.

Tonight the company will play "In Old Myzouri."

But hopeful as arm the officials of the steamer, such hour intensifies the feel-ing of those who had friends or relatives on the ship that all uxcept the interten-who arrived at Manzanillo on the San Juan were last. All day long the office of the company has been besieged by an auxious crowd of watchers awaiting some tidings from the ill-fated ship. While the company has land absolutely no news to give out, it has continued to extent inque that the next hour portuga-iong to this shred of comfort, the crowd whiled nutil dark, and then it an-nounced that the offices would be kept open until midnight to receive any news that might come. The latest intelligence regarding the disaster received here was in a cipher dispatch to a local shipping firm containing the statement of third officer Honsen, who was in charge of the boat picked up. Hansen stated that about 11.15 hast night, as the Colinna was about fifty miles from Manuzanila and between that point and Punta San Telmo, an accident occurred to her machinery. Hansen had not time to investigate like tramble, but believed a builer had burst. The Colinna was put about but began to eink rapidly. A scene occurred and wild disorder followed. One boat was lowered and five others swung out, but so far as Hansen knows the boat he commanded was the only one which get clear of the sinking ship. She quickly foundered, and to avoid suction Hansen's boat pulled clear, and the night being dark, it was impossible to tell whether the other boats pulled away from the wreck or not. If these boats he can defect a safe landing in a few hours. As the passengers from San Francisco landed safely at Mazatlan Before the Colinna proceeded to Mauzanillo: E. W. McCutchen, W. O. KILLED BY A WHEEL. Fatal Accident at the Horseshoe

Bend Vineyard.

A letter to the REPUBLICAN from Coulterville, Maripoen county, announces the death of the Rice, blacksmith and the death of Lie like, blacksmith and engineer at the Horseshoe-Bend vineyard, near that town on May 27th. Mr. Bice was looking after a turbine wheel used for punning water for irrigation, and by some means his cluthing caught on the shait at the wheel, which was revolving 200 times a minute, and death probably resulted instantly, as his neck was dislocated.

No one was present when the accident occurred. H. II. Clark, manager of the vineyard, noticed that the water had cessed flowing in the ditch, and went to the wheel to learn the reason for it. He discovered the body of Bice fast on the shift. From appearance life had heen extinct several hours. He was 30 years old, numeried, and was highly received of the body on when the work of the wall who keep the

Weekly Republican, one year, by mail...... $2.56 Weekly Republican, six months, by mail..... 1 2: JOHN SHERMAN ON FINANCE

In his speech before the Republican ention at Zanesville, Ohio. John Sherman used the following lan-

John Sheman need the tolks and graage:

Gold is now and has been for ages the chief measure of value in international commerce, and the larger transactions of domeric exchanges. Silver, from its brink and weight, is not available for large payments either at home or advocat, but it is indispensable for the inliner wants of mankind, Gold, from its greatly superior value, cannot be utilized for each purposes. Therefore it is that bothly at a fixed ratio. The continual metals have been coined into money at a fixed ratio. The corromans increase of proinction of silver in the United States, Maxico and Australia has distributed this ratio and has lowered the price of other commodities. It is a universal law that price or value is measured by quantity.

In another part of the same speech

In another part of the same speech

Mr. Sherman said:

All forms of money should be of equal purchasing power. For fourteen years after the resumption of specie payments, while the Republican party was in power, we had such a currency. We index gold, silver and paper money, all bearing the stamp and sanction of the United States, of unquestioned credit and of equal value, passing current not only within the United States, but in all purts of the commercial world.

Now compare the two statements: "Value is measured by 'quantity,' and

"Value is measured by [quantity," and "Value is measured by 'quantity,' med-gold, eliver and paper money were 'ne-qual value." It is not, according to Mr. Sherman, the stamp of the govern-ment that gave these various species money their equal value, for he con-tends that the "enormous increase of tends that the "enormous increase of production of silver in the United States, Mexico and Australia has disturbed this ratio," and on this contention he bases his entire argument that it is unadvisable to retain the for a column of eilver lile to restore the free coinage of silver. Note the logic, then: The ratio between different species of money cannot be maintained if there is overproduction of either-during fourteen haleyon years a atther—during four-team into parity was maintained—therefore, the world's stock of precious metals was exactly what it should be during those

Now examine the figures. During the fourteen years referred to—from 1878 to 1892—there was produced in the

The difference of silver $1,747,514,000. The dimensions in quantity is but $223,851,000, a run equal to the wealth of about two of our richest multi-millionsires, and which would give but a little more than $3 aplean if divided among the citizans of the United States. It wouldn't seem that this amount could reduce the value Sherman, who is an "eminent financier," is convinced that it did.

Now look at some more figures. Dur ing the greater part of the world's com-mercial history bimetallism has pre-vailed and both metals have been used vailed and both metals have been used as money at a ratio approximating 16 to 1. Generally they were of as equal value as during his fourteen haleyon years. It follows, if Mr. Sherman's logic is sound, that the world's production of the two metals has usually been about right—it is only recently that the Almighty has injured. His children he eight on much money. dren by giving them too much money What, then, were the amounts with which our financiers experienced little or no trouble in maintaining n fixed ratio? From 1782 to 1848 the total production of gold in the world was $621, 026,000; the production of allver during the same time was $1,53,217,000. Note, it was placed that the production of silthen, were the amounts with the same time was $1,001,217,000. Note: if you please, that the production of silver was more than two to one of gold. But the nations of the world generally maintained the ratio of the two metals without difficulty during that time.

From 1849 to 1893 the world's produce of $10.00.

maintained the ratio of the two metals without difficulty during that time. From 1849 to 1893 the world's production of gold was of the value of $4,612,-822,000; the production of silver was of the value of $3,462,744,000. The production of gold to silver was nearly 3 to 2, and it has finally passed silver in the production of gold to silver was nearly 3 to 2, and it has finally passed silver in the production of gold in the last makes the production of gold in the last makes and the production of gold in the last makes and the production of gold in the last makes and the solicity in behalf of the production of gold in the last makes and price that the production of gold with grain and grief the first time to get any single production of $4,612,-$100; the the value of $3,463,744,000. It me as this, when the gold to silver is vastly chas been at any time it thousand years, that is heard to prate of aversilver. He knows the mooses to talk thus, and earing upon the subject bood to his assertions, stinguished financier." seary to call Mr. Shert to the fact that the representation of contraction of silver began its demonstration, for It is needless to say century having amounted to about $\circ{\pmax}{\pmax}$93,000,000 more than that of silver.

It is at such a time as this, when the proportion of gold to silver is vastly greater than it has been at any time within the last thousand years, including John Sherman is heard to prate of overproduction of silver. He knows the facts, yet he chooses to talk thus, and every statistic bearing upon the subject gives the falsehood to his assertions. But he is a "distinguished financier."

It is unnecessary to call Mr. Sherman's attention to the fact that the reduction in the price of silver began shortly after its demonstration, for he knows it. It is needless to say anything of the fact that its price sunk rapidly when Great Britain struck it a foul blow in India; this, too, he knows. It is useless to inform him that it sunk most rapidly when the Cleveland administration, regardless of law, stood heaveling in the market-place with the baggling in the market-place with the sellers of silver bullion; he knows this and why should it be disturbed?

Ay, but the fleshpots of Egypt come tigh! There is no sympathy expressed for Oscar Wilde in his shame and degradation, and he deserves none, for he is a beast beneath expression. But remember, my boy, that Wilde is a man of talent all but reaching genius, and one who has held a very considerable place in the world of letters. Hinds in him the elements from which men may be made. All this his bartered or degraded for the foul privilege of sinking to an all that inconceivable depth of bestiality. It pays to live clean, my boy. It pays in the respect of your fellow men of what class sower; it pays in respect for yourself, and, above all, it pays in the elevation of your own manhood. There is a sermon in this clauseless but rather brilliant man's fitte. aleo.
And the people know these facts, and no raising of dust will obscure them from their eyes. They will not be missississis are from any source what led by sophistry from any source what-soever, for the truth is within their reach.

English justice has the advantage over the American article of inuving with a reasonable degree of swiftness Had one of our long-haired celebrities for instance, been charged with a sensa tional crime at the time Oscar Wilde tional crime at the time Oscar Wilds was brought before the courts, is any one so cradulous as to suppose that he would now be in prison suffering the penalty of his urine? Scarcely so. In this country a week would probable be devoted to getting a jury and another week, or two, perhaps, to trying the case. And this would be but the begin-nias. Much more time would be recase. And this would be re-aing. Much more time would be re-quired in case of conviction to decide whether or not the defendant was enitled to a new trial. The American so system is a very desirable one for criminals, but the unnecessary burden it lays upon the taxpayers is very heavy.

uspection of Ballots—A Green Pencil Mark and Its History.

The trial of the contested election cas The trial of the concessor Archest case between J. W. Coffman and M. L. Woy for the city marshalship was resumed yesterday before Judge Garter. The foremon was menity all taken up in arguing the questions whether the ballions in the marshall in the marsh ote were properly kept in the custody of the city clerk; whether they might have the city close, which and if so, whether been tumpered with, and if so, whether it was lawful to recount them. The sub-stance of Judge Carter's rulings was that the hallets were properly in court, and could be counted; and they were counted, except from two precincts, the sixth and seventh, where the envelopes containing the ballots were open. These sixth and sevonth, where the envelopes were not counted.

J. W. Shanklin and G. P. Cummings were appendixed tellers, and the recount began at 2.30 yesterikay and was concluded at 9 o'clock last night. As a general thing the counting progressed without incident and proceeded rapidly. The ballots were taken from the unvelopes by Deputy County Clerk (Clark Wood, who numbered them and passed them to Mark Walser, one of Mr. Woy's attorneys. Mr. Valser, one of Mr. Woy's attorneys. Mr. Valser, after examining the ballots, handed them to Judge M. K. Harris, who was Mr. Offman's attorney. He handed them to Deputy County Clerk Dave Coggraca, who read allowed the vote, and the two tollers and Court Heporter Genericative presents of the process of the proces moon, and looking like some privat of ancient times offering merifice to his bonsphold gods.

Thus the work of recounting went on. There was no small quantity of red tape in the process, but they made satisfactory headway. Occasionally a questionable ballot would be found, and the attempt would address the sourt on the advisability of admitting or rejecting it. About a dozen were rejected during the day. Sometimes a ballot which had been rejected by the election judges would be found, and then followed a discussion of its merits and demerits.

A reminisence of election dozen word to fit servits and demerits.

A reminisence of election a Democrat came out of the voting booth with a trimpleant smile on his face, and remarked to his friends: "I seaked it to the Populists! I searched every one of them with a green pencil, and put in my ticket straight Democratic."

Sorre enough, when the tickols were recounted yesterday, the one with the green pencil scratches bobbed up seriouly, and true to his word, the uncompromising voter had "socked it to the Populists." Every one was scratched; its sarvedy need to stand that the tickols was rejected. In socking it to the Democrats.

lists, the voter had also socked it to the Democrate. The accepted ballols were all counted by 5.30 p.m. On the facu of the returns Mr. Woy then had six majority, having gained five. At 7.30 clock the consideration of the rejected ballots was taken up, and by 9 c'clock that contost was rever. Mr. Woy came out of it with seven majority, and was declared elected. He was given judgment for his costs.

"In Old Mizzouri" will be produced at the Burton tonight by Shaw's hig company. This will be it first produced in Frosno, as the Shaw company is the only one that hus the right to produce it on the coast, as it is the property of Mr. Nat Goodwin, and was made famous by him. It treats of old Missouri, in Pike country. The scenes and characters are positively corroct. One act takes place in Joe Vernon's blacksmith stop, in Bowling Green, Filte country, Mo. This is a novelty in the way of stage settings. The characters are all comeiy. Its boing a comedy in every sense, and California having so many people from Missouri within her borders, has made it one of the hargest drawing cards in the repertoire, and there is no doubt but that "In Old Mizzouri" will draw the largest house of the engagoment, and we would advise all who want good scats to get them at once as Munager Barton informs us that the advance sale is already large.

Deputy Constable S. S. Crutcher took the matter in band and worked painently. He family boented parties who be believed did the robbery. He notified the San Francisco authorities. Vesterday he received a telegram from Captain Lees, of the San Francisco detective service, stating that one of the men was under arrest. The name of the man arrested is Massey. He formerly lived in Freen and was not known to do any work. There were three men concerned in the thefa.

When the robbery occurred Deputy and two confederates, but had no solid grounds on which to have his supericious. Descriptions of the stolen property were sent broadcast over the state. Crutcher next went to lakersisal. There he found that Massoy had been joined by the two other men, and that they had all left for the morth. While in Bakersisald they had sold a watch at a Uninese restantant, one at a econd-hand store and none at a juverly store. At the hotel where the mon had been stopping, the clerk said they had given him a small, but heavy, sealed box to keep in the safe ulrulg their stuy in the city. When they loft they took the box way with them.

Leaving Bakersiled Crutcher followed the men north. They had passed Freeno, and Massey had stopped off at both Madera and Merced, while the other two had gone on to Sun Francisco. But at neither of the two places could the officer discover that Mussey had sold any of the jewelry. He found that Massey had nonthined his journey north. The conclusion was that the three men were in San Francisco and secure the essistance of the detertion of the two places sold in the bay city. THE SAME OLD COLUMBUS. The St. Augustine Academy's Cele bration Today.

The Sixters of St. Augustine Academy have arranged an original play for spution at the Barton opera house this duction at the Barlon opera bouse this afternoon. There will be a nominal relarge for admission to defray expenses. Every well-wisher of the cause to which the Sisters have self-marificingly committed themselves will be glad to know that everyone of the sixty girls taking part in the play is a native of Freen, or the child of a resident.

It is to be a play by girls and girls only. The plot is the story of Columbus told without King Fordinand of Spain and without Kolumbus, at least in visible presence. The songs, ducts and chorness are all for female voices.

It was permitted to a Reconserve reporter to witness a dress reheursal yesterday afternoon and it is take to say that the play will not disappoint any note who believes in reproducing the vertal which courred in the days when excitation centered in old Spain and when America was an "undiscovered country."

The musical accompaniment will be when America was an "undiscovered country."

The musical accompaniment will be rendered by punils of the Academy. No professional talent of any kind will be employed. Even the curtain will be controlled by a Sister. The drosses and costumes have been made by the girl who will take part, in their few leisure thours, and in all instances out of school time. It may be said that the costumer are unique and appropriate.

LETTER FROM MINTOSH

HIS OPINION OF THE SANDERS CASE

He Doubts Detective Lawson's State ments-Reviews Parts of the Evidence.

Entron Regulation:—"He that is area
In his own cause seemeth just, but his neighbor cometh and searcheth him."
In your issue of the 30th uitimo appears a letter from Mr. Lawson, the de-In your issue of the 30th ultimo appears a letter from Mr. Lawson, the decitive, reflecting upon one in such a way that those who do not know the writer may believe the statements true. It doesn't like me, and it's no wonder. I am the one who investigated his statements before the grand jury. This same Lawson, who now speaks of 'The grand jury of Fresho a year ago and swore tinthe had been told by Professor anders that on a certain day (March 14th I think) he, Sandras, hadrode on a freight train from Majave to Bakershield—lint he, Lawson, had made in thorough investigation of Sanders' statement and found it untrue, us no such train had hauled him as he said.

I went to Majave, interviewed the trainmen and found that Sanders' was right. Of rourse they could not both he right, and that Lawson was wrong you have taken worm statements of the train men. Now it occurs to me that when public money Is paid for an investigation, that investigation for some we have nothing but guess work. If Lawson made the investigation, and reliable, instead of that in this case we have nothing but guess work. If Lawson made the investigation, and stated what was contrary to the facts. In his letter he says: 'If defy my inividual tar hours a nigoatice.'

Surely, it is a great, injustice to make dely any individual to point out a single instance wherein I have done Professor Sauders an injustice. Surely it is a great injustice to make a statement which is automagainst any man, and much more so when the statement is sworn to and the man is indicate because of said statement. It does not matter if Lawson supposed he was speaking the truth; the lasts remain that same. Taking it for granted that he had made the investigation as stated, and the fact plain and uncontradicated that he was wrong, it is quite reasonable to suppose that his investigations here in Los Angules county would be of the same knd. When on the witness shad he stated that he had found out from personal investigation that Knamech had had no money in any Los Angules bank. Now he says "my agency" or "my operatives" and intimates that the evidence was "my agency" or "my operatives," and intimates that the evidence was "procurred through comployes." Admitting ugain his statement to be true as far us to knows, he knows only what his "operatives" told him.

What the bankers told me is cortainly

What the bankers told me is cortainly more reliable, and they all told me, as far as I went, that neither Lawson nor any one else had ever asked a question of them concerning Kanusch or Wooton. They also volunteered the studement that, if Lawson had asked such a measurement that, if Lawson had asked such a word, unless he had an order from the court. If Mr. Lawson's "chalower" had been present, he woold have heard some of those same men tall me that I was more than foolish to take any stock in Lawson's estatements. During the last few days I have asked a large number of the residents of l'asadam and Los Angeles if Mr. Lawson was a relimble man. Not one of them answered in the allimative, and the large unjority gave me a very decided negative. As he refers to my "record," I wish to say that I resided in Freens for over four years and went in and our among the best people there. I leave it to them. I don't claim to have money, so that I could play any bing fame if I would by offering $500 for charinable or questionable purpose; but do claim to try to do right irrespective of what others may yay.

My connection with the Sanders' case has been sell from the tion. It is the same still. Of course it is only an opinion, but as such it is worth something when viewed in the light of reason and education saids from projudice. Professor Sanders has not the ability to do the work or commit the crime he is accused of. I have seen his tencher's cortificates. When he went before the county board he obtained a full 100 per cent on the whole, but not even I per cent in the subject of drawing. The state board gave his not total credit of 93%, the highest ever given, but nothing again for drawing. I me sure that all well educated and intelligent men will agree with me that in order to copy another's writing and do the work so well as to deceive the very circle, he must be good in drawing as well as in writing.

teligent men uni agree with me that in order to copy mother's writing and do the work so well as to deceive the very civet, he must be good in drawing as well as in writing.

Does any intelligent person suppose for a moment that Professor Sanders went before a board of education twenty years ago and professed ignorance of a certain subject, because he intended at some future time to commit a crimo and the knowledge of this subject would be widone; against him?

I know that this now there appears a cloud in the Professor's horizon, but that cloud is entirely made up of guess work and suspicion. If I had no connection with the case I could not heliave that a nam who had lived nearly three same years, who had been one of the forenost educators of the state for the major portion of his life, and had shood the biszo of public critissan without aven a shadow of suspicion, I could not believe that such a man would if from the two days' hot shot which was fired by Ir. Hinds without in some degree betraying it. His stary, though strange, was certainly well told, and in the Professor's hands invalingable. All their argument was along this line. Some will say it was quite difference between the such a man should be counted for the processor's hands invalingable. All their argument was along this line. Some will say it was quite difference between real vidence and bars suspicion. To odd not distinguish the difference between real vidence and bars suspicion. One of the jury, when asked how they arrived at a verdict so quickly, replied: "Oh, the most of us had our minds made up before the fail of our had our minds made up the fore the trial commenced."

Of course, I did not heart his from the invalvable of the proceed before the supremencent, my one of ordinary intolligence could state the result.

Mr. Lawon's reference to the blank draft book is the silliest non that some that some half open heart the remark. If this were proved before the supremencent, my one of ordinary intolligence could state the result.

that the Kutner-Goldstein draft was taken from that book. There are thougands of books exactly the same on this cast. There are thougands of books exactly the same on this cast. They are put up and bound diffy blanks in a book. A bookbinder was called by the prosecution to examine the book. He was excused from testifying, as his evidence would be in favor of the defense; but he alterward did testify for the defense, and stated that there were still dity blanks, counting the stabs, in the book; that noon had been removed, etc. If there was evidence that the first leaf had been turn out, how does it happen that there is no such evidence now? No one could have placed a blank draft or a tub in the book without leaving evidence of this having been done, and as there are etill fifty, it is conclusive proof that there nove was a blank removed from the book.

I have no desire to shield Professor Sanders il he is a guilty man, but I seen on widence of his guilt, but the contrary. Without doubt Mr. Wootton went away from home on the let of February, '94, and he was seen in San Francisca after that by the witnesses Chambers and Statson. They are both respectable men, whose testimony would be taken in any court of justice, But what he came of Wootton? I have a takony, one of his post cards written to Professor Sanders from San Francisco in the fall of '92 says: 'I leave for Freene in the morning all right, I think I can stand the trip now. I was at the theater last hight, another today, and I shall go sauvenhere tonight, and that will do not. William Wootton.' This 'somewhere' tolis as that ine old man was going to visit a place he did not wish to name. If he has gone to may self-place since leaving Fresno country, and it was found that he had a good ann of money with him, his life would not he worth as much as it costs to write this letter.

worth as much as it costs to write this letter.
There is one thing more to which I wish to refer, and then I am none. At the first trial of the Professor Mr. Short introduced a number of important papers, which were accepted by the court and marked "Defendant's exhibits," etc. These papers were missing when the second trial came on, and could not be found at any time during the trial. To me this looks as if some one was determined that the Professor should not linve a fair trial. As far as I have learned no newspaper has made mention of this fact. G. B.
